

i believe that the FCC should eliminate the regulations that are impacted at the moment, and concentrate on giving the free market the power. The free market will allow more diversity in the market place.